Sloan's Group

This is the free version of ProjectForum. In the free version, you can only create a single group, and several advanced features of the full version are not available.

To try out the full version, visit the main ProjectForum page and request a demonstration license key.

[\[Enter license key\]](#)

This runs on ProjectForum which provides interactive Forums for groups to collaborate on their projects.

Each Forum supports project planning, todo lists, design notes, task assignments, meeting notes, problem reports, team discussions, research, collecting feedback, brainstorming and more.
